

Brain Imaging Research Study Investigating the Effects of a Reading Training Intervention

Who: Children 8 -12 years old, with and without reading difficulties & no history of mental illness or head trauma.

What: 2 virtual visits and 2 in-person visits consisting of paper and pencil tests, questionnaires & a Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) scan of the brain. The reading training program is completed at home using a computer through the internet and lasts 8 weeks.

Where: Kennedy Krieger Institute in Baltimore, Maryland

Compensation: Participants will receive:

Visit 1 testing - $25

Visit 1 MRI - $50

Training Sessions - $.50 per session,
with opportunity to earn up to $12

Visit 2 testing - $25

Visit 2 MRI - $50

Contact Information:

Study Coordinator: Jenny Fotang, MA

E-mail: Fotang@kennedykrieger.org

Principal Investigator: Keri Rosch, Ph.D
Co-Investigator: Tzipi Horowitz-Kraus, Ph.D.
Kennedy Krieger Institute; Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
JHM eIRB study IRB_00207805

Kennedy Krieger Institute
UNLOCKING POTENTIAL