

Tapping Into Talent: Innovation and Opportunity

A national conference presented by Neurodiversity at Work at Kennedy Krieger Institute

October 24–26 | College Park Marriott Hotel & Conference Center

Sponsorship | #EmployAbility2027

WHY SPONSOR

Connect and collaborate with professionals dedicated to driving workplace success. As a sponsor, you will have the unique opportunity to engage with employers, nonprofit organizations, service providers, policymakers and industry leaders who are shaping the future of employment and higher education success.

The conference explores solutions that strengthen workforce development efforts and advance employment opportunities for people with disabilities and other hard-to-hire talent groups by helping employers connect with and retain talent. This conference is a catalyst for collaboration, innovation and action—don't miss this opportunity to be part of the conversation.

AUDIENCE

Kennedy Krieger anticipates an attendance of 300 professionals spanning multinational companies and organizations, from various industries and expertise. The conference offers flexible sponsorship options, including landmark, branding and social event sponsorships, to match your company's or organization's goals and objectives. If you can't find what you are looking for in the categories listed here, we can tailor a package just for you.
