Date: Tuesday, June 1, 2021

Time: 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Where: Live Interactive Webinar

Registered participants will receive an e-mail with instructions on how to join the session.

Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Discuss laws relevant to transition and elements of effective transition planning.
2. Explain the recent MSDE technical assistance bulletins developed around transition planning.
3. Create the transition planning section of an IEP and list resources for transition planning.
4. Identify resources and referral sources for family and community members regarding guardianship, and recognize when there are issues related to capability.
5. Select less-restrictive alternatives and provide resources for implementation.

The first part of the session will provide an overview of transition planning, including applicable federal and state laws and regulations. The presenters will discuss elements and goals of transition planning, including examples of quality and poor transition planning. They will also provide an overview of transition planning resources, including state and nonprofit resources. The second part of the session will provide an overview of supported decision-making as an alternative to guardianship. Supported decision-making is gaining national and international recognition as a best practice and legal tool that can preserve the civil rights of people with disabilities and eliminate the need for a guardian in certain situations. The presenters will discuss competency and the grounds for pursuing guardianship of the person, and guardianship of the property. They will also discuss other alternatives to guardianship, including advance directives, advance directives for mental health, surrogate decision makers, representative payees, and powers of attorney. Resources and referrals on alternatives to guardianship will be provided.

Instructional Level: Introductory.

Who Should Attend? Psychologists, Social workers, Counselors, Educators, Parents and Caregivers, Nurses, Clinical and Medical Staff, Direct Support Professionals and other Community Service Providers, Speech/Physical/Occupational therapists, Students/Trainees
