

Engaging Communities in Research Implementation and Dissemination: Challenges and Opportunities

Date: Thursday, July 20, 2023

Time: 3 to 4 p.m.

Cost: Free but registration is required

Where: Live Interactive Webinar

Registered participants will receive an e-mail with instructions on how to join the session.

Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Understand the importance of autism research and common concerns in research implementation and dissemination.
2. Utilize practical research considerations when designing and implementing research.
3. Learn effective strategies for engaging communities, individuals and families in research and information sharing.

Dr. Kiely Law, MD, MPH, is the research director of the Autism Research and Engagement Core at the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute. She leads local and national efforts to promote patient-centered research in autism. Click to read presenter's full bio.

Cheryl Cohen, MS, is the director of online and community programs, Autism Research and Engagement Core at the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute. She has been facilitating autism research for the past 15 years by ensuring that the community has access to evidence-based information and research that matters. Click to read presenter's full bio.

Community and its members play a role in the conduct of research, including autism research, and in the dissemination of evidence-based information and interventions within communities and service systems. Community partnership in research is necessary for the translation of evidence-based research findings into practice, and for reducing health disparities. This workshop will discuss the importance of autism research and challenges in research implementation and dissemination, and will provide practical strategies for effective engagement of communities, individuals and families across different groups and cultures in research and information sharing.

Instructional Level: Introductory

Who Should Attend? Psychologists, Social workers, Counselors, Educators, Parents and caregivers, Nurses, Clinical and medical staff, Support staff and other community service providers, Speech/Physical/Occupational therapists, Students/trainees.

To Register, Click or Call 443-923-9555

Free session but registration is required. Register early, as space is limited!

For more information on our Summer Learning Series or to request accommodations or assistance for individuals with disabilities, please contact us by phone at 443-923-9555, email Training.MCDD@KennedyKrieger.org, or visit MCDD.KennedyKrieger.org. Requests should be made as soon as possible but at least seven days prior to the scheduled meeting.

Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities
at Kennedy Krieger Institute
Building Partnerships. Changing Lives.