

For Faith Community Leaders

Faith Community Learning Collaborative:

An Inclusive Faith Support Ambassadors program sponsored by the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute

- Imagine... a time when leaders from several faith communities come together to
 - Listen to each other to gain a better understanding of each other's community needs, assets, and goals for inclusive practice.
 - Identify shared challenges and define possible solutions to a shared community vision and goals towards creating inclusive faith support in faith communities.
 - Set priorities that draw from their identified needs, assets, and community resources.
- Then... they plan how best to use their wisdom, time, resources, and social capital to
 - Implement inclusive faith support leadership training in faith communities and train inclusive faith support ambassadors who will facilitate inclusive practice trainings in their faith communities.
 - Evaluate the program change efforts, next steps, and plans for sustainability.
 - Celebrate gains and successful implementation of inclusive faith support in Maryland faith communities.
- And You are a part of that Collaborative!
