Date: Thursday, July 29, 2021

Time: 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Cost: Free but registration is required

Where: Free Live Interactive Webinar

Registered participants will receive an e-mail with instructions on how to join the session.

Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Learn strategies on how to effectively work with school staff to meet your child's support needs.
2. Understand children's social, emotional, and behavioral health, and when to be concerned.
3. Recognize the approaches for understanding the need for early evaluation and intervention.
4. Learn about available intervention resources at school and in your community.

Parents and families play an important role in how well children do in school and in the community. They are the first agents at identifying children's strengths and concerns, opening doors to support and services, and ensuring that those doors remain open to meet their children's needs.

The Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities (MCDD) at Kennedy Krieger Institute invites parents and caregivers of school-age children to participate in this free parent workshop!
