Who is treated in the Brain Injury Inpatient Program at Kennedy Krieger?

- Children and adolescents with brain injury
- Those who need intensive medical care
- Those who need inpatient rehabilitation

What kinds of improvements might patients receiving treatment from the Brain Injury Program be expected to make?

- Improved self-care skills
- Increased mobility
- Improved communication
- Enhanced ability to participate in daily activities

Where do patients live who are seen by the Brain Injury Inpatient Program?

- 25% from out of state
- 33% from Maryland

Types of Patients Treated

- Traumatic Brain Injury
- Non-Traumatic Brain Dysfunction
- Epilepsy
- Movement Disorders

Interdisciplinary Treatment Team

- Occupational therapists
- Physiatrists
- Developmental pediatricians
- Neuropsychologists
- Hospitalists

What happens if a patient gets acutely sick?

- Occasional, more intensive medical needs
- Transfers to the acute care unit

During fiscal year 2022*, 41 patients with traumatic or non-traumatic brain injury were discharged by the Brain Injury Inpatient Program at Kennedy Krieger.

In fiscal year 2022, the average length of stay on the inpatient unit for all patients with brain injury was 38 days.

During medical emergencies, Kennedy Krieger has the necessary equipment and processes in place to respond.

*Includes encephalitis, inflammation, and anoxia.