How long do most inpatients receive treatment from an inpatient at Hopkins Hospital, we are able to admit patients with intensive, but stable medical acute care. Due to our proximity to and affiliation with The Johns Hopkins Program had a medical emergency requiring transfer to The Johns Hopkins Hospital. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

Spinal Cord Injury Program

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?

97% of patients discharged to home. These lengths of stays are similar to the rehabilitation hospitals nationwide. What happens if a patient gets acutely sick or has a medical emergency while being treated in the Inpatient Spinal Cord Injury Program?