Key Considerations for Special Needs Trusts

Choosing the Trustee

- ❖ Role of the Trustee
 - Utilizing the Trust to work in conjunction with Government Benefits (distributing income for qualified purposes)
 - Investment Management of Trust Assets
 - Preparation and filing Tax Returns
 - Record Keeping
 - Fiduciary Liability
- ❖ Family/Friends
- ❖ Professional

Funding the Trust

- ❖ Insurance – review old insurance policies.
 - Hybrid life insurance/long term care policies
- ❖ Inheritance
- ❖ Securities and Cash

Other Legal Issues

Updating Wills

- ❖ Updated wills ensures passage of assets to correct people/trusts
- ❖ Update Advanced Medical Directives
- ❖ Can be updated/created when a Special Needs Trust is created
- ❖ Beneficiary Review, follow up

Guardianship/Power of Attorney/Supported Decision Making

- ❖ Medical Power of Attorney
- ❖ Financial Power of Attorney
- ❖ Guardianship (in many cases it's the last, not the first option)
- ❖ Supported Decision Making – allowing the individual to help make his/her own decisions with assistance

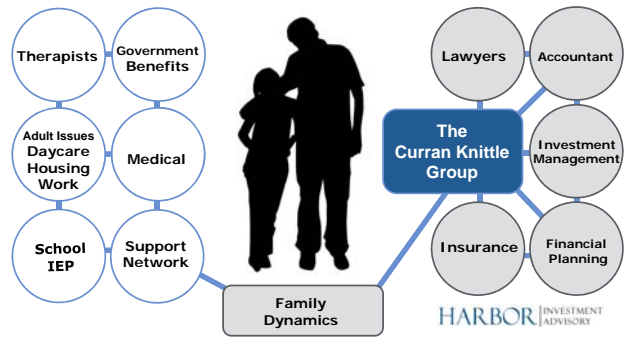

Special Needs Life Plan for Loved One

Family Dynamics

- ❖ Develop plan and communicate with siblings and family – don't assume
- ❖ One Nest Egg – many goals, retirement, education, etc – communicate plans help to alleviate any misgivings over potential inheritance
- ❖ Once you have updated your plans, communicate with any potential family or friends that might be inclined to contribute to the trust
- ❖ Develop and communicate plan with future caregivers
 - An annual meeting with the involved parties to review roles
 - Review and update plan annually

Organizing & Orchestrating Partnerships

First Step in Getting Started- Your Homework

Beneficiary Review – make sure your Child is not a beneficiary

- ❖ Life Insurance
- ❖ Retirement Plan
 - IRA
 - 401K / 403B / TSP
- ❖ Annuity
- ❖ Pension
- ❖ In the Will of Friends & Family

Once your plan is updated, review your beneficiary information to include the Special Needs Trust or other designated vehicle
