SPECIAL NEEDS: REALIZING POTENTIAL

Brain Involvement in Sturge-Weber

BY ANNE COMI, M.D.

Some Diabetic Kids Try Unhealthy Ways to Shed Pounds

BY MICHELE G. SULLIVAN

Mid-Atlantic Bureau

Some girls and boys with type 2 diabetes sometimes use unhealthy weight-loss tactics such as taking pills or laxatives and skipping meals and insulin, a survey of diabetic youths has found.

Such practices may have a negative impact on diabetes management, including glycemic control, a risk factor for future complications. Physicians...